The Griffin Dramatic Club are entertaining the people of that city with "Nick-of-the-Woods." Captain Dos, city sexton of Griffin, has a sprained ankle from jumping from his buggy. Messrs. Moss & Williams are making preparations to erect a banking house in Griffin. The provision and fertilizer trade is much better in Griffin this season than at any time since 1869. Skating at Osborn's pond, near Griffin.—Griffin Star.

An altercation occurred on Monday last in the neighborhood of Waldrop's shop, about three miles from Conyers, between Tom Alexander and Frank Hester, which resulted in the severe cutting of the latter. Our recent fire was a heavy blow to Conyers, but we are pleased to learn that the replacing of the buildings will be commenced as soon as the necessary arrangements can be made.—Examiner.

Mr. A. M. Auston, has been re-elected Clerk, and H. W. Smith, Marshal, of Covington. On Friday night Dr. S. H. Lindsay, Clerk of Newton Superior Court, dislocated his ankle, and broke his leg in two places, while enjoying a frolic with the boys in the snow. The young ladies of Covington availed themselves of the leap year privilege on the 25th instant, and were out snow balling, and were victorious in every conflict.—Georgia Enterprise.

During the past few days over 1,100 tickets have been sold in the in the interest of the Confederate Monumental Association, of which Messrs. L. & A. McLaws are general agents. William Early, of Augusta, colored, was slightly stabbed in the shoulder by another colored man, Lewis Griffin, on February 1. On the night of the 1st instant Major W. T. W. In addition to the heavy ordnance soon to be mounted on Forts Jackson and Pulaski the War Department at Washington has ordered 100 recruits to reinforce the company of the Third Artillery stationed at Savannah and Key West. A little colored girl, named Charlotte West, 13 years old, residing in Savannah, was burned to death a few days ago. The Board of Firemen of Savannah have presented to Hon. Isaac Russell, of that city, a handsome silver trumpet, for the manner in which he performed his duties in defending their rights in the late Firemen's Convention.—Savannah Advertiser.

We learn from farmers throughout Morgan county that their wheat and other small grain crops are very promising, and large crops are expected. William Woods, Samuel Dye and D. M. True have been appointed delegates from Morgan county to the State Agricultural Convention at Savannah. Madison is to have a masked skating entertainment February 14th. George Gardner, claiming to be from New York City, but more recently from Atlanta, and an architect and builder, put up at the Madison House for three weeks, and after running sundry bills where he could get credit, left Madison, forgetting to settle his bills and taking a couple of blankets through mistake—of course. The Messrs. Van Winkle, of Patterson, N. J., have purchased homes in Morgan county, with a view of farming. The name of Colonel John G. McHenry has been suggested as a candidate for Mayor of Madison.—Appeal and Advertiser.

The Gainesville and Jefferson Railroad enterprise is rapidly growing in interest with the people of Hall and Jackson counties, and is now beginning to be looked to as a fixed fact. Indeed it is now a necessity. Dr. Stephenson has completed the organization of his company to wash for diamonds in the vicinity of Gainesville, and will commence operation as soon as the weather moderates a little. Firewood brings from 50 to 60 cents a load in Gainesville. Mr. William Lacey, who formerly lived in Cave Spring District, died on Friday of last week in the one hundredth year of his age. Nearly a fire at the Gainesville Academy on Tuesday last. Prompt action extinguished it. The saw mill belonging to Mrs. Buffington was destroyed by fire a few nights since, supposed to have been the work of an incendiary. The authorities are taking steps toward procuring grounds for a city cemetery.—Gainesville Eagle.

The fire in Macon yesterday morning, was first discovered in the room occupied by Prof. Klein, Optician, and was evidently accidental. The injury to the building amounted to about two thousand dollars, which was fully covered by insurance. The entire stock of Mr. Klein was destroyed, upon which he was insured for $1,500. The City Bank of Macon had a very narrow escape Thursday morning. It was pretty thoroughly on fire, but having a tin roof and being closely shut up, there was no vent for flames. The fire smouldered away, how long no one knows, but it is certain the timbers, and even the sheathing of the roof are pretty thoroughly consumed. There is little doubt that the whole building would have been destroyed, but for the fact that many of the members of Young America Fire Company were attending a party a few rods off, and the engine house stood midway between the scene of their festivities and the burning house. Under these circumstances they were on hand at the instant, when a few minutes delay in gathering would have made it too late.—Telegraph and Messenger.

☞ Read our Washington letter. It is of interest to many Georgians.

☞ The sale of reserved seats for Theodore Thomas' Concerts is now progressing.

☞ We thank Colonel W. P. Price for the Congressional Directory for 1872.

☞ Hancock says he has not declined to run for President, but prefers to be considered as not seeking the office.

☞ The latest novelty is the red hot propensity of the crimson-plumed junior of a Savannah paper to parse typographical errors.

Heart Hungry.

It is rumored that the author of this tragic story has been offered by Carleton & Co., her publishers, the round sum of $10,000 for the copyright of her book.

☞ Mr. J. T. Spence, of Atlanta, will oppose Dunning's chin music in favor of woman's rights. The whole affair will be gotten up regardless of ex-Spence.—Savannah News.

☞ Hon. Thomas A. Scott, the great Railway Magnate, is here. He goes up to Gainesville to-day. The excursion will be accompanied by members of the press and City Council.

☞ The Newnan Herald and Covington Enterprise indorse the press excursion idea. The latter suggest Florida to go to. This will be out of the question, as May is too late a season to visit Florida pleasantly.

☞ The Supreme Court of the United States has decided that the war began with the blockade proclamation, and not the firing on Fort Sumpter, and ended with the Presidential proclamation, April 3d, 1866.

The Public Laws,

THE CONSTITUTION office is prepared to supply orders for the Public Laws of Georgia, passed at the last session, with an appendix containing Court Calendar, the Government of Georgia, etc. Price per pamphlet, $1. Apply at the business office.

☞ Dick Yates, the Radical ex-Governor and ex-United States Senator from Illinois, is a swamped man. He was refused a drink in a saloon the other day, and had to be put out, drunk and crazy. Broken, and friendless, the poor fellow has no hope and no prospect of a sot's grave.

The Passive Policy in Pennsylvania.

A test case of the Passive Policy has just been made in Pennsylvania. In the Fourth State Senatorial District the Radical majority last October was 7,030. This time the Democrats held off and voted for the Reform Republican, McClure, against the Grant Radical, Gray. But Gray beat McClure 900. This shows a change of 6,000 votes.

High Priced.

In an important branch of marriage, suit in chancellor in New York, Miss Fowler got $1,000 from Mr. Martin for her damaged affections. This will, we presume, be the current compensation for such goods hereafter. Rather over-valued we think, but then if the men will indulge in the luxury of bogus courting, they know the cost beforehand, and go in eyes open.

The Georgia Western Canal.

The Gainesville Eagle says that place has been visited by the engineer corps surveying the line of the big canal. The Chattahoochee river can be made an ample feeder of the canal at Bate's Shoals, seven and a half miles above Gainesville, the feeder not exceeding thirty miles in length. The route is practicable. The cost will fall far below the first estimate.

The engineers are delighted.

The New North Carolina Senator.

General Mat. W. Ransom, the new North Carolina Senator, is native born and 40 years old. He is a lawyer, was Attorney General of the State in 1853, legislator in 1858 and in 1860, and peace commissioner in 1861 to the Confederate Congress at Montgomery. He volunteered early, became in rapid succession Lieutenant-Colonel, Colonel, Brigadier and Major General, winning distinction. He is fine looking.

The Writing Editor.

Our exchanges of THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION are some very sensible remarks as to what constitutes a good editor. It says:

"A taste for picking good news and clever advertising judgment are needed, but we assert that there is not a good editor in the whole country, we mean a managing editor, that is not a good writer. Men may be good writers without being good editors. But a successful editor is obliged to write well."

The editor who does not write, and laboriously and intelligently, too, is not very apt to give any character to his journal—for, as THE CONSTITUTION well says:

'The truth is that a man gives individuality to his paper by his peculiar style of treating subjects. It is very true that a very newspaper will succeed without any editorial, but it is the editorial column that gives a journal its influence at last. The highest prestige of journalism can only be reached through its editorial power."

Nothing Succeeds Like Success.

What gave to Pomeroy's Democrat such a wide circulation a few years ago but his voluminous and stale selections of literature? Mere selections would never have made that paper known outside of Wisconsin. The same question may be asked of other papers.

To edit a paper successfully is no easy work, if any one may find out who tries it. The uninitiated have no idea of the constant wear and tear of the mental and physical energies. And we claim that the man who properly conducts a weekly paper has no less easier talk than he who works on a well-regulated daily. The difference is that his labor is generally distributed on the days that each man has certain duties to perform, and when those labors are over. The editor of the weekly journal is compelled to do an immense amount of reading and condensing in order to make the issue of his paper, when it will publish the latest news as they come and give his readers all that passes.

But editorials are expected and the editor who does not furnish them, will soon find that his journal goes unappreciated and never attains any reputation. It is the editorials, the individuality of the paper that gives its character and makes it a power in the nation, and that according to the ability of the editorial writing there is.—Georgia Journal.

Born and brought up with loathsome prejudices, and a personal friend of the Senator Chesnut, he is only a Republican [illegible] at heart a partisan of liberal revulsion. The main efforts of all his writings seem to be directed against that spirit of centralization which has concentrated, here in Paris the entire life of the nation; and which, if not forced before it, which is likely to be in part his own history, he shows us a young man from his country, well born, well bred, with ample means, coming to Paris, which, after twenty years spent in the honorable pursuit of happiness, and with the earnest desire of rendering himself useful, he is compelled to leave, filled with disgust, well nigh ruined, and almost the object of official persecution, to find in his native home, and in the practice of the stern duties of active life, the peace of mind and the feelings of contentment so sedulously and so vainly sought for in the capital.

All this is narrated in a series of most interesting chapters, which, vividly portraying the nobiliary arrogance of certain families, and the heartless vanities of Parisian society in general, compose a work of great beauty and brilliancy, especially when they picture the charms of country life, as it can be enjoyed by the man of heart and education.

Fernando De Lemos, By Charles Gayarre, Author of the "History of Louisiana," "Philip of Spain," etc. New York, G. W. Carleton & Co., Publishers. Atlanta, Phillips & Crew's.

This is an autobiographical novel, and Fernando De Lemos takes the reader through his school days, on a European tour and finally back to Louisiana. The book contains over five hundred pages, and the narration is natural and entertaining. It is full of anecdote and incident. The sole object in view seems to be to entertain—inculcates no particular lesson or moral.

☞ Alabama has indorsed bonds of finished railroads to the sum of $10,220,000. The indorsement is pledged on $17,886,000 more, aggregating the large sum of $28,043,000.

Several of the railroads indorsed are in a beggarly condition.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

Georgians Whose Disabilities Have Been Removed by Special Act of Congress.

WASHINGTON, January 30, 1872.

Georgia had quite a benefit in the House yesterday in the way of having the disabilities of her citizens removed. While this is highly satisfactory to the individuals concerned, I am sorry to see that all the leading men are not included in the bill. Many of the disabilities of certain Georgians, whose names are mentioned below. The second section of the bill provided that all laws or parts of laws inconsistent with the provisions of this act be and are hereby repealed. The object of Mr. Pilsbury, however, was to have presented to the striking out of this section. In response to questions he said that the provisions in the bill and petitioned for the removal of their disabilities, and that they were all good citizens. Mr. Butler, of Tennessee, made similar statements with regard to citizens of that State, who were also included in the bill. The bill passed by a vote of two-thirds vote. The following Georgians appear in it: David Irwin, Dennis Taylor, Warren Allen, W. Johnston, Whitfield county; Thos. Hardeman, Bibb county; L. Billingsley and Christopher Payne, Habersham county; Wm. W. Underwood, Floyd county; Wm. A. Lofton, Jasper county; John E. Moore, J. D. Stewart and J. T. Dugal, Spalding county; Elbridge G. Cabaniss and Cincinnatus Peoples, Fulton county; Jas. [illegible] Coweta county; Lee S. [illegible] and Samuel [illegible] Gwinnett county, Georgia.

General Young introduced a bill, which also passed by a two-thirds vote, removing the disabilities of David Irwin, Dennis Taylor, Warren Allen, Jas. W. Harris, T. C. Howard and Lafayette McLaws.

Gaston DuBose introduced a bill for removing the disabilities of Martin J. Crawford, of Muscogee county; and Speer presented a petition from W. S. Hudson, of Harris county, and Levi S. Russell, of Chatham county, asking that their disabilities be removed. The bill and petition were appropriately referred.

Mr. Sloss, of Alabama, introduced a bill granting to the Memphis, Atlanta Railroad Company, to aid in building a railroad from Decatur, Ala., to Rome, Ga. Referred to Committee on Public Lands.

ADJOURNMENT.

The action of the House in referring the Senate resolution for a sine die adjournment of this session on the 29th of May, to the Committee on [illegible] Rules, [illegible] to accede to the Senate's proposition and it is now anticipated that Congress will not meet in the summer.

AMNESTY.

The agreement to vote on the Amnesty bill in the Senate to-day has been broken, and it is said no action will be taken on this measure until the return from New York of the Senators engaged in investigating the Custom House of that city.

TOMMY HAWK.

Editors Constitution: Having received numerous communications from young men, a man who, like myself, feel a deep interest in the agricultural interests of Georgia, asking if I am, or am willing to become, a candidate for the secretaryship of the Georgia State Agricultural Society, I beg leave to say, in addition to a fair understanding and in justice to other parties to give the [illegible]

Close attention to agriculture has been, from my earliest years, one of my ruling propensities, and it has always been a love of mine to see it, and study it in whatever form it presented itself, especially connected with the [illegible] society, the [illegible] citations of [illegible] offices, memoirs of committees, and other gentlemen allied to its interests, [illegible] most agreeable [illegible] assurance that every aid desirable and necessary will be given towards [illegible] and making pleasant the labors of its coming incumbent.

Among those gentlemen and many who have been longer identified than I have, with the affairs of agriculture in Georgia, and whom I look upon as better calculated to shed the wants of the society and the agricultural interests of the State, therefore, with [illegible] decline the expressions of friends favorable to the [illegible] the Secretaryship, and [illegible] for the position.

THREE advertisements are almost given away in the Boston Story during each inking. Two cents new Chiffons opened.

"JOHN LONG YORK."—Francis Fontaine, at Cartersville, offers an early variety of corn by the above name at $6 a bushel.

ATLANTIC COAST LINE.—Attention is directed to the advertisement of the Atlantic Coast Line freight route.

THIRD BAPTIST CHURCH.—Rev. J. H. Weaver, of Chattanooga, will preach in the Third Baptist Church to-day at the usual hours, morning and night.

DISPOSED OF.—The carpet belonging to the Mayor's office in 1871 has been sold to Ex-Mayor Hammond, who retains the room, by Council, at one-third of its original cost.

OGLETHORPE PARK.—Rumors are current of the removal of buildings from Oglethorpe Park. It is generally believed that these rumors are put in circulation to induce the City Council to take possession of the grounds.

FIRE HOTEL FOR SALE.—A hotel in a neighboring city, containing thirty-two rooms, gas and water fixtures, etc., is offered for sale by the proprietor in consequence of declining health. Capitalists would do well to make a note of this.

JUST SO.—The young men who went out sleigh-riding yesterday with their horses covered with bells, and their sleighs filled with belles, evidenced their high appreciation of music and beauty in the combination. We wish them fair weather with the belles.

THE following list of letters are held for postage at the Atlanta post office February 4 1873:

ATLANTA REAL ESTATE ASSOCIATION. The annual meeting of this association has been called by its President, Colonel J. R. Wallace, on Monday evening 9th instant, at 7 o'clock, at the office of W. J. Houston, Treasurer. Important business makes it necessary for a general attendance of stockholders.

THE EDWARDY HOMESTEAD.—Wallace & Fowler will sell next Tuesday the Edwardy Homestead on the Eastern Hill, divided into nineteen lots. Here is an opportunity to obtain a residence in an elevated and healthy part of the city that should not be overlooked. Capitalists and home hunters should be on hand next Tuesday.

UNEXCELLANT.—The rules for the government of the police adopted by Council on Friday night are good, but that part requiring an inspection of the whole force on Sunday at nine o'clock should be amended by adopting some other day. It is unnecessary and we hope the next meeting of Council will amend it.

ANOTHER ARREST.—James Mullin was arrested yesterday on a warrant issued by Justice W. M. Batt, charging him with cheating and swindling in approving a false and fraudulent account made out December 9th, 1870, in favor of J. C. Alexander for $3,495 40. Mr. Mullin waived a preliminary examination, and gave bond in the sum of $8,500.

CORRECT IT.—Some of our contemporaries are publishing the erroneous statement that G. W. D. Cook had been arrested for colluding with Patty Harris in robbing the State Road Treasury. It is but sheer justice to Mr. G. W. D. Cook that our confreres correct the error at once. He is one of our best citizens, and his name has never been connected with the State Road, or other frauds.

BOARD OF HEALTH.—The regular meeting of the Board of Health will be held on Tuesday evening next, at half past seven o'clock, at the office of Dr. James B. Baird, corner of Marietta and Peachtree streets. All persons having complaints to make are requested to report them to any member of the Board sitting before that time.

PIANOS.—Atlanta has became a musical center. The great Piano Emporium of Phillips, Crew & Breyer, has developed in the past few years a large trade. They have pianos from $300 to $4,000, and sell them cheap. Quite recently they purchased the stock of Mr Fanon, and their store is now quite an attractive place to lovers of fine pianos and good music. A good piano is like a thing of beauty, a joy forever."

VALENTINES.—The fourteenth of this month is set down as the calendar as Valentine's day, in honor of the saint's name, St. Valentine. The annual meeting of Valentine is a gallant, a lover, a suitor. On this day the young ladies examine the roll of gallants, and send out to the young men.

The results are that Phillips & Crew has a large and elegant stock of sentimental and comic Valentines which they offer to the trade. But a few days remain for furnishing supplies.

S. B. LIPPINCOTT & CO.—We take pleasure in calling the attention of editors and the public generally to the Educational, Standard and Miscellaneous Publications, embracing Scudder's Analytic Arithmetic, Chauvenet's Mathematical Series, Cutter's Physiologies, Wickersham's Methods of Instruction, School Economy, etc.; Chambers' Miscellaneous Questions, leading works in Theology Law, Medicine, Art, Fiction and other departments of J. B. Lippincott & Co., Publishers, etc., Philadelphia.

Prof Martin V. Calvin, of Augusta, is General Agent for them, and recommend him to our readers.

ATLANTA, GA., February 3, 1873.—A called meeting was this day held of the Atlanta Agricultural Industrial A conference at the First Vice President's office, with First Vice President, O. H. Jones, presiding, and W. D. Leckie, Secretary pro tem

It was agreed that these delegates were to be elected to represent Fulton county at the State Agricultural Convention to be held at Savannah on twenty-second of February. On motion Messrs. O. H. Jones, J. J. Toon and S. J. Wilson were elected such delegates. The First Vice President granted power to appoint alternates, and the Secretary give him instructed to procure free passes from Secretary Lewis for the above delegates.

W. D. Leckie, Secretary pro tem.

A TERRIBLE STORM ... [illegible] ... house could not accommodate the audience of about three hundred persons who were present. The beautiful grove on the corner of Pryor and Hill streets where, seated on the green grass, for several weeks the members of the Atlanta Female Seminary, under the direction of the wonderful power and humble love of Jesus, Pupils and teachers were added every Sabbath unto the Church. [illegible] Council, the school was removed the next autumn to the Capitol building, [illegible] left entirely vacant. Here they continued until January, 1865, when the house was blown down by a severe storm, that [illegible] noble Christian lady, well and favorable known in this city, who, with some assistance, erected a house [illegible] which she kindly furnished them. On the 7th of May, the school reassembled. Here, also, in the fall, the revival fire began to preach the glad some news of salvation to the poor and lost. God blessed his labors in the conversion of scores [illegible] souls, and a church was organized. Regular [illegible] services were continued in the building, and God [illegible] most daily added unto the number—there being at present, nothing over two-hundred members. With wonder we may exclaim: "What hath God wrought!" The good news spread throughout the community, and the people came in crowds from the highways and streets, until the house could not contain them. What to do was the perplexing question. They were not able to build of themselves; they could not be content while the people stood or went from the house, because [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] faith in God and confident of the sympathy of all lovers of christianity, they determined to build them a larger and more [illegible] house.

Colonel L. P. Grant donated them a lot on Hunter street worth $500; Isaac Tuttle gave them in general work $100; E. E. Butler gave them $1 each $50; Dr. H. V. M. Miller, Judge Hayden, R. R. Brown, G. T. Dodd, Abercrombie, A. Sessions, Gen. A. Hill, W. P. Pattillo, F. M. Richardson, Judge Pittman, L. Jones, Wm. A. Moore, [illegible] and many other citizens donated [illegible] Judge Lochrane, Chief Justice Jackson, [illegible] etc., gave their $50 each. While many [illegible] smaller amounts in money or rendered valuable aid in the way of material. Thus this most deserving people, with such assistance as they could offer, have been able to complete the hull of what will be, when it is done, a commodious, comfortable and tasty Church edifice, which they call St. Paul's. I love the house to be their pastor, and for the promotion of their good have consecrated all my endeavors. I am visiting and praying with people among them who have not been in a church, nor heard a prayer in five years. God blesses my labors, for which I am grateful. Now I want to finish their church building. It is yet unplastered, unpainted, and besides is wanting in furniture, and needs some better arrangement for warming it. I want $1,000 by the 1st of April. These people cannot meet their current expenses (nearly eleven hundred dollars) and finish their church too. They must have help. Some kind friends have undertaken voluntarily to aid them by giving various entertainments; but these enterprises have failed to give the needed assistance. Under these circumstances I appeal to christians of every name and friends of christianity in Atlanta. Whatever elevates and refines the people; whatever makes them industrious and upright conserves society and promotes the well-being of the community. Invest some of your money in this church, where it will [illegible] yield a handsome per cent. in the promotion of the temporal and spiritual good of the community and the advancement of Christ's kingdom on earth. I am sending out circulars to which I have received, in the last few days, a number of cheering responses. I am confident of success, for God hears the prayer of faith. Kind friends, remember that one good deeds, sanctified by the atonement, shall be acceptable unto God and crowned with an ever lasting recompense of reward.

G. H. PATTILLO,
Pastor St. Pauls.

A GOOD PUBLIC ENTERTAINMENT.—Amid the numerous public exhibitions and entertainments which feed the puerile taste of the public and reflect an unhealthy influence upon all who attend them, it is refreshing to find one that does not pander to the prevailing thirst for low sensation. We allude to that chaste and really beautiful entertainment given by the Berger Family, whose singular musical skill surprises and delights every audience. Their excellence is particularly shown in their especialty as bell-ringers. Certainly we never before heard such melody and harmony produced by bells. A very important, and to us interesting feature of these entertainments, is the physiognomical delineations of Mr. Russell. This gentleman has a protean countenance which is capable of exhibiting every phase of expression, and seemingly loses its own identity completely at times. We may print an article ere long with engraved illustrations, showing Mr. Russell's power over his face. N. Y. Phrenological Journal.

No tickets will be sold at the door, but they can be procured of the Committee, S. Rosenfeldt, E. Rich and D. Kaufmann. Parties who desire to do so may attend without masking.

"The night shall be filled with music,
And the cares that infest the day

And as silently steal away."

And the gay assemblage
"Trip it as they go
On the light fantastic toe."

STATE BY TELEGRAPH.

BY J. G. HOLLAND.

"Heaven is not reached by a single bound;
But we build the ladder by which we rise
From the lowly earth to the vaulted skies,
And we mount to the summit round by round.

"I count this thing to be grandly true,
That a noble deed is a step toward God—
Lifting the soul from the common sod
To a purer air and a broader view.

"We rise by the things that are under our feet;
By what we have mastered in greed and sin,
By the pride deposed and the passion slain,
And the vanquished ill we bourly meet.

"We hope, we resolve, we aspire, we trust,
When the morning calls to life and light,
But our heart grows weary and we lose sight
Of the summit-cliffs that we dreamed we must.

"We build our ladder by fancies fair;
Night comes down on the toiling throng;
Some have only begun and some grown long,
But the dreams depart and the ladders fall.

"Heaven is not reached by a single bound;
But we build the ladder by which we rise
From the lowly earth to the vaulted skies,
And we mount to the summit round by round.

Religious Items.

[CONDENSED FOR THE CONSTITUTION.]

Strongest minds are often those of whom the world hears least.

Honor the Lord with thy substance, and verily thou shalt be fed.

The Presbyterian churches of Cincinnati are valued at $850,000.

There are 161 Baptist churches in Minnesota, and in Wisconsin 200.

Too many persons are far less ashamed of having done wrong than of being found out.

Peace is love reposing; it is love on the green pastures; it is love beside the still waters.

Heaven is described to be "peace without trouble, ease without pain, glory without end."

Eternity is a sea without bottom or banks, for what line or plummet can fathom its depths?

The Church of the Messiah, Chicago, recently sold their building on Wabash Avenue for $90,000.

Love is that great calm which comes over the conscience when it sees the atonement sufficient and the Savior willing.

It is a fatal error, and one which men are apt to commit, to suppose that there is any other path of safety than that of duty.

The Presbyterian church employs in its home mission work 1,338 missionaries, who labor in thirty-four States and territories.

The income of Beecher's church, in Brooklyn, is $56,774 from pew rents, and $39,004 from collections. It has 2,116 members.

Eternity makes heaven to be heaven. It is the diamond in the ring, for there the sunlight of glory shall rise on the soul and never set.

God is not a hard master. He is a Father, a tender, loving Father, easily pleased, if He sees in us a desire in all things to honor His name.

If you know anything that will make a brother's heart glad, run quick and tell it; but if it is something that will cause a sigh, bottle it up.

Hope is the sweetest friend that ever kept a distressed soul company; it beguiles the tediousness of the way—all the miseries of our pilgrimage.

The difference between the wicked and the Godly is described thus: "The wicked have a never-dying worm, but the Godly a never-fading crown.

Were there no glorious hopes of a future beyond the grave, it would be a maddening thought that love and death are as inseparable as sun and shadow.

Religion is the basis upon which civil government rests—that from which power derives its authority, law its efficiency, and both their sanction.

There are birds who only make a noise at the approach of bad weather; and there are persons who only pour out a prayer when God's chastening hand is upon them.

The Young Men's Christian Association of Chicago are re-establishing their library. They realized about $8,000 insurance money in diminution of their loss by the fire.

Perfect love is described to be like the soul which Christ has pacified, spread out in serenity and simple faith, and the Lord God, merciful and gracious, smiling over it.

The number of Young Men's Christian Associations in the United States and in the British Provinces is estimated at nearly 1,000, with a membership of 150,000 young men.

True devotion does not consist in a long face, regulation sighs, and penitent words. It consists in devout deeds, in charitable words, in a sweet, tender, elevated, pure life that influences and betters every one who inhales the same atmosphere.

In Missouri there are 208 Presbyterian churches—an increase of 100 per cent. since the war; 125 ministers—an increase of fifty per cent. Yet there remain in this State fifty counties in which there is no Presbyterian organization.

During the last fifty years there has been an increase in the number of Protestant missionaries of more than five hundred per cent. Of those who had gone out from Europe and America there were in 1820 only 337, in 1870 there were 1,494, with 11,000 native preachers and aspirants.

JESUS WHISPERING.—"What is conscience?" said a Sunday School teacher one day to the little flock that gathered around to learn the words of life.

Several of the children answered, one saying one thing and another another, until a little timid child spoke out:

"It is Jesus whispering in our hearts."

Does Jesus whisper in your heart? When you do wrong does he approve? When you do right does he rebuke? Does he make your heart sad when you have sinned and happy when you have done rightly? Be thankful, then, for this, and remember always to heed the Savior's whisper, and study His word, and pray to know His will, and then you will be safely guided to His heavenly home at last.—Apples of Gold.

I have held the lives and liberties of great numbers in my hands. I have heard many thousands of prayers for pardon. I have had intercourse with those holding the highest places down to those living in the gloomiest cells. I have seen and felt as much as most men of the harshness and bitterness of the strife of this world. All this experience has led me to feel kindly toward my fellow man. The longer I live the better I think of men's hearts and the less of their heads. I grow more and more disposed to charge the evils rich do their infirmities, and the more deeply am I impressed with the great truth of that religion which teaches us the need of a Spirit to guide, a Savior to atone and a merciful God to forgive manifold sins and transgressions.—Horatio Seymore.

ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES.—A recent number of the Catholic World directs attention to the rapid growth of the Roman Catholic Churches in the United States. It says:

"Nowhere has the Catholic Church increased so prosperously within the last fifty years as in the United States of America. Two thousand churches and chapels were built; an increase of 1,800 clergymen; 180 schools established for the Catholic training of 18,000 boys and 34,000 girls. Moreover, there existed in 1867, 66 asylums, with 4,000 orphans of both sexes; 26 hospitals, with 3,000 beds; 4 insane asylums, besides many other charitable institutions, all supported by the private charity of Catholics."

THE BIBLE A UNIVERSAL BOOK.—The Bible is not a Hebrew book. The Bible is a book of man. It is a divine record of truth revealed before Abraham's day; truth which it pleased God to preserve, through the children of Abraham, free from all taint of their sins and errors, yet made more clear and impressive by those sins and errors. It is no less glorious, if, on its human side, this truth be in part Chaldean, or Egyptian, or Persian; while it is of no consequence as to its authority, since it reaches us through inspired men, free from its corruptions or perversions, and pure [illegible] Archbishop Whately.

CHILDHOOD INFLUENCES.—It is in the home of men that the child is shaped into his estate, whether noble or mean; therein the seed of his whole life is sown. Schools may develop the powers and furnish the abilities; they may give culture and refinement to the abilities; the general tone of the daily life will mould the character of the man.

For Cleansing and Preserving the

TEETH

HARDENING THE GUMS

Imparting a delightfully refreshing taste and feeling to the mouth, removing all tartar and scurf from the teeth, completely arresting the progress of decay, and whitening such cavities in the teeth as have already become black by decay.

IMPURE BREATH.

AMONG all the disagreeable consequences that follow fast the decay of the teeth, an impure breath must be the most unpleasant and mortifying to the possessor, as it is the most inexcusable and offensive in society. How often its possessor experiences a distant coldness shown even from the best of friends, or perhaps the one most fondly cherished, from this source. You are ignorant of the cause yourself; the subject is so delicate—your most intimate friend will not tell you of it. Remove this one great barrier to your health, beauty and happiness, at once, by using that justly popular dentifrice, fragant Sozodont, the most convenient, pleasant and efficacious gem for the toilet the world has yet produced.

Sold by druggists and dealers in perfumery generally. Price 75 cents per bottle.
